

A Liquid Mixture
Designed to Protect
COWS AND HORSES
From Torture by Flies

A Valuable Disinfectant and Germicide.

SO-BOS-SO (Kilfly) is a liquid mixture designed to protect cows and horses from torture of flies. The preparation is positively harmless. It is used with splendid results as a disinfectant and germicide. The Electric Sprayer discharges the So-bos-so (Kilfly) in a fine, broad spray. From 30 to 50 cows can be sprayed in a few moments. The Electric Sprayer is detachable, and thus may be thoroughly cleaned. If your animals are troubled with lice use So-bos-so (Kilfly). It knocks them out. Spray your poultry house with So-bos-so (Kilfly). It kills lice, or any vermin that may infect the fowls.

FOR HORSES.

So-bos-so (Kilfly) is invaluable as a disinfectant for spraying around the stable; at the same time prevents the irksome torture of flies on horses while at work, especially draft horses, traveling at a slow pace and often times obliged to stand for long intervals, harnessed to the truck, exposed to the torture of the pesky flies, while the teamster is loading, unloading, or otherwise engaged. Blacksmiths will greatly appreciate the preparation. A moment's work with the Electric Sprayer and a little So-bos-so (Kilfly) will rid the shop of flies, and the horses stand perfectly quiet. Your use of So-bos-so (Kilfly) will result in more and better milk, more money, more comfort for cows, for horses, and for you.

Kilfly has proved a perfect success in this Territory, and until the arrival of large invoices recently, we have been unable to fill all orders. We have now a supply on hand and more on the way. Sufferers from the HORSE FLY should give Kilfly a trial. We are the sole agents for the Territory of Hawaii.

RED MEN DANCE IN DRILL SHED

Many Palefaces Attend and Are Welcomed by the Tribe.

The Installation Ball of Hawaiian Tribe No. 1, Independent Order of Red Men, was given at the Drill Shed last evening, after one or two postponements. The tribe outfit itself in the decoration of the hall, and with flags, banners and ferns created a charming interior. Emblems of the Red Men and flags were tastefully arranged upon the wire netting dividing the company rooms from the main hall, while the partitions were covered with the resplendent flags of many nations. Across the footlights of the stage was a streamer of yellow on which was the word "Welcome" wrought in fern leaves. The orchestra was stationed on the stage.

Palefaces from many parts of Honolulu plain mingled with the warriors and squaws of the Hawaiian tribe, and to the beating of the tom-toms and the other music a great dance was held. The Sachem smoked a pipe of peace with the palefaces as they entered the wigwam and led them into the midst of the people of the tribe. As the tom-toms beat louder and louder the braves and the squaws waxed merrier, but the war-cry was not heard. The Sachem had spoken the word that there should be no war-dance, and therefore the eagle's feathers were not donned, for the season and moccasins and tom-toms were left in the big council-house. There was a tepee at one end of the hall where two warriors dipped into a great bowl wherein were chunks of ice and the juice of the lemon, making a cooling drink.

When the tom-toms ceased to beat at intervals between the dances which the palefaces called waites and de-wa-tumps, the warriors would wend their way to this tepee and obtain the cooling liquid for themselves and the squaws. At the entrance to the wigwam Sachem John Short stood, surrounded by his chiefs, J. P. Eckardt, Duke McNichol, Frank Betters, John T. Schneider, W. F. Drake and Julius Asch. The music, led by the Chief Sharp of the Tom-toms commenced at the eighth run, thirtieth breath, and continued until after the midnight hour had arrived. Then the big wigwam was darkened and the braves and squaws went back to their tepees on the plains and in the forests upon the hillsides.

The following committees were in charge:

CAPTAIN FLINT IN COLD TYPE

The Captor of Beverley's Clown
Now on the Staff of the Evening Moo.

Captain Harry Flint of the local police force, who recently made a spirited bid for fame by arresting a clown at Beverley's circus, while in the execution of his duty, which was to play drunk, is still running strong for the notoriety stakes. In the Evening Moo of yesterday Flint is credited with a statement which ridicules a story which appeared in the morning papers yesterday, in which the strange conduct of two passengers on the Sonoma was dealt with.

The Journal mentioned states that Captain Flint reported the occurrence, as he claims to have observed it, to High Sheriff Brown.

Last night High Sheriff Brown denied that the policeman had even mentioned the matter to him.

Flint says in the Moo: "Shortly after 11 o'clock last night a man and woman, both a good deal under the influence of liquor, came onto the wharf from up-town. They were second-cabin passengers in the Sonoma and on the passenger list as man and wife. Soon after entering the wharf they sat down on a pile of baggage and proceeded to consume the contents of a flask which the man had. The man wanted his wife to go aboard ship, so he could go up-town again. The woman refused and so they talked it over. The man then bought his wife a bottle of soda water from a Japanese vendor nearby and they started up the gangway, the man quite a distance ahead of the woman.

"Arrived on deck the woman flashed the soda water bottle in the moonlight and put it to her head to take a drink. After finishing it she threw the bottle overboard."

"Flint saw the bottle and heard it break when it hit the side of the vessel in its fall," the Moo goes on to say. Captain Flint was not on the Oceanic wharf last night between the hours of 11 p. m. and midnight, the only representative of the police department on the wharf or on board the Sonoma being Chester Doyle.

The parties concerned were first and not second class passengers, occupying stateroom 41 and being registered as Mr. and Miss Ross.

On arriving at the wharf the couple went straight on board, the man waiting until the woman had traversed the gangplank and then following her. The rest of the story as printed in the Advertiser can be supported by the affidavits of eye witnesses.

Captain Harry Flint does his duty excellently at a tent show but the police department will do well to limit his official operations to keeping a tab on the eccentricities of clowns and performing monkeys. As a newspaper reporter he is simply impossible.

HAS TWO CUPS.

Manager of Honolulu Park Track
Brings Two Handsome Trophies.

G. S. McKenzie, manager of the Volcano Stables at Hilo, came back on the Sonoma from the Coast. He brought with him two silver cups, which will be contested for at the New Year's races at Honolulu Park.

One of them is the Hilo Race Track cup, for a mile running race, to be won twice by the same owner. The other is the E. N. Holmes cup, for the free-for-all trotting and pacing race, also to be won twice by the same owner.

Mr. McKenzie offers the first cup, and the second is provided by Mr. Holmes of Hilo.

Chris Johnson will soon launch his new yacht. The boat is now on the ways having her fin keel put on. She will be given a trial next Sunday.

HE BEGGED TO BE ARRESTED

McElroy Said That He Was Starving—Dr. Winslow Now in Queen's Hospital.

The following cases were disposed of in the District Court yesterday:

Mourng Kawa, A. Perry, selling liquor, nolle prossed; John Callahan, vagrancy, November 2; Kela Oha, selling liquor, November 1; Tom Castro, horse, untied, 35 and costs; Homa, truancy, 30 and costs; Joe Samson, truancy, one year Reform School; Ah San, gambling, 25 and costs; Ah Wan, Ochiishima, Kawato, Horita, gambling, 30 and costs; Ah Chun, larceny, second degree, November 1; J. H. Miller, profanity, nolle prossed; William Jose, Alkaula, H. Jose, Alkaula, H. Sylva, assault and battery on Lau Tim, November 1; Chun Yee, libel, November 5; Mihara, drunkenness, 25 and costs; Joe Castro, Gloria Alameda, adultery, November 1; McElroy, vagrancy, two months.

McElroy walked into the police station and asked to be locked up. He said that he came here as a coal passer two months ago, and had been unable to find steady employment. "I can't get anything to do," said McElroy, "and unless you arrest me, starvation stares me in the face."

"We don't make a practice of arresting people in order that they may get a square meal," said the deputy sheriff.

Just then the south wind blew softly, and brought with it the smell of hash browning over the fire in the prison kitchen.

"Please lock me up," persisted McElroy.

Finally the deputy took compassion on the hungry man and he was haled before Judge Wilcox, who magnanimously gave him two months on the reef, where the breeze from Nuanu valley gives an edge to the appetite and where the eating utensil and the slice go hand in hand.

Yesterday's arrests included: John Maston, truancy; S. Zabian, assault and battery on Lee Chung; Joe Correa, investigation; Susuki, heedless driving; F. Ormrod, drunkenness.

Dr. Winslow's bill was ordered lowered yesterday by Judge Gear to $250 in the two cases of assault and battery against him. The former bill was $1,000. Dr. Winslow found bail, and was removed to the Queen's Hospital, where he is being treated for gastric ulcer. He is reported to be a very sick man.

BOER LAWYERS IN LONDON.

Great Number of Them Seeking to Practice at English Bar.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Many persons were surprised to find that Dr. Krause, the former Governor of Johannesburg, who was arrested here on the charge of treason, was a member of the English Bar. As a matter of fact, however, there are so many men who were formerly subjects of the Transvaal Republic and the Orange Free State who are now seeking to practice at the English Bar that their claims are to be considered shortly by the Joint Discipline Committee of the Four Inns of Court. The committee will have to determine whether the legal status of some of the applicants is that of an alien, an alien enemy, a rebel, a traitor or a British subject.
